more than you'd expect...

You know that we supply fuel to the general public, but did you also know that we are one of the leading suppliers for mining, aviation, marine, industrial and transport industries. This means for our Direct Sales teams, there's no such thing as a typical day. Our business continues to expand on the back of superior customer relationship management, a reputation for delivering on commitments and the provision of top quality products. An exciting new position is now available in our Direct Sales business in Melbourne.

Business Manager - Card

You will manage the strategic relationship of our fuel-card services to National and Regional accounts in order to meet agreed sales volumes and revenue targets. You will also ensure customer retention, help build profitable growth and generate new leads in targeted consumer segments. Our corporate functions are highly valued, visible and essential to our overall operations. No two days are the same; there is always something new to learn or an innovative and exciting project to be involved in. If you are commercially savvy, have tertiary qualifications in Business, Engineering, Science or Finance and extensive experience in sales or account management then come and make your mark with Caltex.
